Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15, 1861.

ENGLAND'S NEUTRALITY.

British neutrality makes no distinction between a United States man-of-war and one of Jeff. Davis's piratical cruisers. We commend the subjoined evidence of this important fact, to the numerous gentlemen in the British interest, who questioned the correctness of THE TRIBUNE'S recent announcement of the substance of Mr. Adams's dispatch to the State Department. The following report of a conversation was received at the Navy Department this morning:

U. S. SHIP RICHMOND, at SEA, Aug. 25, 1861.

SIR: The following is a portion of a conversation that occurred this morning between Capt. Morris, R. N., and myself, during my visit to the gun-ship at Port Royal: "I suppose," he remarked, "you are in search of a strict neutrality, and if the Sumner were to come in tomorrow, she would receive the same attention and assistance that you have. We can make no difference."

"I asked, 'Is that observing a neutrality? Is it not recognizing her? Is that the meaning of her Majesty's proclamation?' I understand," I added, "neutrality to mean that her subjects must not meddle in this affair. You can recognize no flag." "Yes," he replied, "I have received a copy of the flag. I'll show you the letter." He showed me the flag and read me an extract from a letter from the Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty, in which the needed States are styled "the Confederate States." It says: "In the event of any vessel bearing the flag of the Confederate States, you are to observe a strict neutrality. The flag is described, and the letter adds that 'the number of stars will be increased in case new States should join the Confederation.' This, as near as I can remember, is the substance of that portion of our conversation."

I am, respectfully, your obedient servant.

A. H. CUMMINGS, Lieut. U. S. N.

To Capt. JOHN POPS, U. S. ship Richmond.

CUBA AND REBEL COMMERCE.

It is believed that the Proclamation of the Captain-General of Cuba was issued by him on his own responsibility. This ill-feeling toward our Consul, who has been altogether too active against the slave-trade to suit Spanish officials, may have hastened its appearance.

ACTIVITY IN THE REBEL CAMP.

There was much movement among the Rebel forces on the other side of the Potomac to-day—a movement indicating a massing of troops. Indeed this has been the busiest day since the Bull Run affair.

THE ENGAGEMENT.

Gen. McClellan attended church to-day in this city. One of his most intimate friends was heard to express his inference, from this fact, that a general battle would take place to-morrow.

THE PROMPTITUDE OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

As an evidence of the promptitude with which the War Department has met every demand of Gen. Fremont for munitions and aid, and also of the energy with which the war is prosecuted, we will mention that in the very hour that a request for 16 9-inch field guns was received from St. Louis, the carriages for them began to move from Maize, and the guns from Pittsburgh. The entire order arrived in St. Louis in fifty-one hours!

DAY'S NEW LIGHT.

Experiments were made on the Potomac last night with Day's new light, by which signals are given by the connection and disconnection of the wires of the battery with those of a mercury reflector, causing a bright light to appear and disappear at regulated intervals. It operates with the accuracy and rapidity of the electric telegraph, and is incomparably more brilliant than a light-house light of the fourth degree, as was shown by the contrast with that at Alexandria, near which the experiments were tried. The President, with Commandant Dahlgren, witnessed the spectacle.

THE FORCES IN WESTERN VIRGINIA.

A telegram was received from Gen. Reynolds, in command at Cheat Mountain, to-day. He reports no change in the situation, and says that he is fully able to maintain himself.

ABSURD RUMOR.

A foolish rumor that Gen. Scott had resigned found believers to-day.

THE 79TH COLORS RESTORED.

The colors of the New-York 79th were restored to them to-day, in conformity with Gen. McClellan's promise on Tuesday.

GEN. HEINTZELMAN IN COMMAND.

Gen. Heintzelman takes command of a division in Virginia to-morrow.

IMPORTANT SEIZURES.

A detachment surrounded a landing of rebel provisions twenty miles below the Navy-Yard, and took a large number of prisoners and a quantity of contraband goods. It was from this point that the rebel mail began to Richmond took both across the Potomac. It was carried to the landing on this side by women.

To the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15, 1861.

ARREST OF SPIES.

A detachment of Col. Young's Cavalry, under Capt. White, arrested three spies yesterday near Port Tobacco, Md., and brought them to Washington. On their persons was found topographic and other information designed for transmission to the enemy from that neighborhood, so contiguous to the Virginia shore, and of the advantage of which the Secessionists have long availed themselves.

A NEWSPAPER CORRESPONDENT BADLY WOUNDED.

F. W. Walker of Brooklyn, the Washington correspondent of The N. Y. Express, on Friday afternoon accompanied the detachment of Col. Young's Cavalry on a scouting tour, and, aided by a guard of two soldiers, captured an active Secessionist, who was placed in confinement at a house near by the place of arrest. The guard having necessarily to absent themselves from the premises to attend to their horses and other business, the prisoner, while Mr. Walker was taking minutes of the conversation with him, suddenly drew his knife and plunged it into the latter's bowels, and rushing from the house made his escape before one of the guards, who was outside, could have a fair shot at him. The neighborhood was afterward searched for the fugitive, but without success. The pursuit, however, is not abandoned. Walker is lying in a critical condition, and receiving proper attention. He had, it is stated, by the officer who communicated the above facts, gathered much valuable information.

ORGANIZATION OF THE LINCOLN CAVALRY.

The Lincoln Cavalry, composed of two companies from Pennsylvania, one from Michigan, and nine from New-York, is now thoroughly organized, the field and staff officers having been sworn in, as follows:

Colonel, Mollaypoult; Lieutenant-Colonel, Von Schiltfuss, formerly of the Prussian army; Major, C. H. Ogle, late of the regular army; Adjutant, A. Waldman, who raised two companies in New-York; and Augustus Howard, formerly of the 8th New-York Cavalry; Battery of New-York Cavalry, consisting of E. H. Bailey, formerly of Michigan; Chaplain, Raleigh, formerly of New-York, New-Jersey, and an old and intimate friend of Col. McClellan.

THE NATIONAL LOAN.

The national loan is succeeding beyond expectation. Several hundred subscription agents were appointed last week in nearly every loyal State, including Virginia and Kentucky. A considerable number have already accepted and sent in their bonds; the others will probably be all at work this week. The subscriptions of the people have exceeded $9,000,000, and their patriotic cooperation will doubtless enable the banks to take the second installment of $50,000,000, and supply all the money for a vigorous but economical prosecution of the war. The Administration feels the importance of justifying by vigor, economy, and integrity the confidence manifested by the masses. Wasteful expenditures and corrupt contracts, by which alone the security of the working-men who invest their earnings in the loan can be impaired, will be rigorously repressed.

QUIETUDE.

There was unusual quiet on the Virginia side of the river to-day.

OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

The recent order for the better observance of the Sabbath was everywhere respected, and the religious services in the various camps were numerous attended.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Capt. Ingalls of the Quartermaster's Department, and Second Controller Curtis, came near being killed, wounded, or taken prisoners to-day, by approaching too near the Rebel lines. They had crossed Hall's Cross Roads in an open carriage, our pickets informing them that everything was safe for half a mile beyond, when, in fact, we had no sentinels on the road beyond the crossing. The parties had approached within a few yards of the London and Hampshire Railroad, when they were fired upon by Rebel pickets, concealed in bushes. The excursionists immediately retreated, and succeeded in safely reaching our lines. Notwithstanding the dangers attending traveling outside of our pickets, it is unaccountable that civilians will persist in it, contrary to the advice of military authorities.

REBEL PICKET SHOT.

About 1 o'clock this afternoon, two of the Rebel pickets stationed at Munson's Hill, ventured beyond their usual picket line, when they were fired on by our sharpshooters. As they were both seen to fall, it is supposed they were killed.

NEGROES ON GUARD.

Major Lemon of the 32d New-York Regiment, commanding the picket post at Bailey's Cross Roads, reports to-day that negroes were seen performing picket duty for the Rebels.

CAPTURE OF UNIONISTS.

Last Friday afternoon, at the time of the burning of the dwellings of Unionists, at Ball's Cross Roads, by the Rebels, Samuel Buch, wife, daughter, and three sons, residing two miles to the right of the forks of the road, were captured by the Rebels. It is supposed their property was destroyed, though nothing is known to this is positively known. The above are all the facts which could be gleaned from a journey from the Chain Bridge to Alexandria.

NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

A.; Capt. Ricketts, U. S. A., was to have accompanied the party, but is not sufficiently recovered from his wounds to undertake the journey.

Serious fears are entertained for the crops of the South. The rains of August are reported the heaviest and most general that ever were known, and were very disastrous. The Savannah Republican claims fair rice crops, but admits that continuous rains have damaged it somewhat. The Baton Rouge Advocate says that the cotton crops of that vicinity are literally covered with the army worm, and that the fate of the crop will be sealed in a few days, for the rains and heavy atmosphere are favorable to the work.

H. Kelly, claiming to be a Baltimorean, was arrested at Manassas on the 6th.

A. T. Bledsoe, Assistant Secretary of War of the Confederate States, has resigned.

The Richmond shoes merchants urge the discharge of all shoemakers from the army, and their employment at making shoes of canvas.

The Richmond Whig of the 10th says that there is a very bitter feeling against speculating contractors for the winter clothing supplies for the army, and urges the imprisonment of the cotton and woolen mills into the public service to avoid speculating contracts.

It states positively that the War Department has detailed from the army soldiers to be employed in cloth factories.

Jeff. Thompson has issued a proclamation in which, as a retaliatory measure for Gen. Fremont's proclaimed intentions, he threatens for every number of Southern forces or citizen soldiers of Missouri, to hang, ward, and quarter a minion of Abraham Lincoln's.

The Charleston Courier says that preparations are making in that city for manufacturing locomotives on a large scale.

The rebel Governor of Arkansas has called an extra session of the legislature for the 4th of November.

A lot of medicines and soldier buttons, amounting to $6,000 in value, were seized yesterday. They were being smuggled to the rebel States.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

FRANKFORT, Sept. 15, 1861.

In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Whitaker introduced a resolution, authorizing the Military Board to seize the State arms, wherever found, and to employ a sufficient police force to protect the railroads.

A NAVAL SKIRMISH AT NEWPORT NEWS.

A SAUCY DASH BY THE REBEL STEAMER YORK-TOWN—SHE ATTACKS THE CAMP AND BLOCKADING SQUADRON—A DOUPLE OF SHELLS FROM SAWYER'S GUN OVER HER BACK—RECONNOISSANCES BY REBEL STEAMERS.

PORTSMOUTH MONITOR, Sept. 14, 1861.

By BALTIMORE, Sept. 15, 1861.

There was a prospect of an engagement last night at Newport News. About 4 p. m., the steamer Yorktown ran down to within three miles, and opened fire upon the camp and blockading squadron, consisting of the Savannah, Cumberland, and the gunboat Louisiana. She fired twenty-five shells, one of which exploded near the Savannah, and the others fell considerably short. The guns of the Cumberland and Savannah could not reach the Yorktown, but a couple of shells from Sawyer's gun, on shore, caused her to retire. One of the shells exploded three-fourths of a mile beyond the steamer.

A Frenchman who managed to escape from the Yorktown, day before yesterday, states that she has been watching for some time an opportunity to run the blockade, and that the loyalty of many of the crew was suspected.

About 4 p. m., also, a party which was sent out to cut fuel, encountered 500 Rebel cavalry and an equal number of infantry about three miles from Newport News. The teamsters left their wagons and galloped in to give the alarm, but no further demonstration was made, and the wagons were afterward brought into camp.

The rebel steamer Cock made her appearance this morning about Newport News. A steamer also from Norfolk made a reconnaissance.

The distinguished political prisoners from Baltimore, including Mayor Brown, Rose Winans, the Hon. Henry May, and others, arrived at Old Point this morning. They will be closely confined within the fort.

The steamer Yorktown has been cut down forward and aft by the removal of her upper cabins, so as to carry two large pivot guns. She has, in addition, six heavy guns on each side. There are no indications of her having been iron plated.

REBEL COMMERCE AND CUBA.

ASSURANCES FROM THE SPANISH MINISTER OF NO RECOGNITION OF THE REBEL FLAG.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15, 1861.

Mr. Tassan, the Spanish Minister, has called to assure the Secretary of State that the report from Charleston that the Captain-General of Cuba has issued a proclamation recognizing the Rebel flag is untrue. What has happened is, that vessels from any port in the United States, in possession of the Rebels, coming into a port with irregular papers, are admitted as necessary without notice of their irregularity, just as they have been admitted in all other ports since the Rebels obtained possession of the Custom-Houses in the insurgent States. It is needless to say that no such vessels can be abroad without escaping the blockading force. There is no recognition of a Rebel flag in Spanish ports or in any other ports.
